

Have you always wanted to listen to your favourite album the way artists do in the studio - with deep bass, crystal-clear sound, and the volume turned right up?

In our fully-equipped recording studio at nhow Berlin, you'll enjoy listening to a complete album with perfectly tuned acoustics and powerful sound. The experience offers stunning views of the Spree River and the Oberbaum Bridge. Come by and soak up a private listening session in a space usually reserved for stars recording their music.
