

Marie Cuiro

As a mother of four, I discovered painting four years ago.

From the moment I started painting for the first time, I immediately fell in love with this art form that allows me to escape.

Bringing my paintings to life with sunshine and bright colours is one of my strengths.

Imaginative, I always challenge myself by trying to create paintings with different tools. In fact, when I create a painting, I never use brushes, but rather a variety of utensils that I find along the way.

Emotional, I paint according to my moods and feelings in order to pour all my creativity and feelings of the moment onto my canvases.
